Sometimes when it rains
I smile to myself
And think of times when as a child I'd sit by myself
And wonder why people need clothes

Sometimes when it rains
I think of times when I'd run into the rain shouting 'Nkce - nkce mlanjana when will I grow?
I'll grow up tomorrow!'

Sometimes when it rains
I think of times
when I watched goats running so fast from the rain while sheep seemed to enjoy it

Sometimes when it rains
I think of times
when we had to undress carry the small bundles of uniforms and books on our heads and cross the river after school.

Sometimes when it rains
I remember times when it would rain hard for hours and fill our drum so we didn't have to fetch water from the river for a day or two

rains for many hours without break I think of people who have nowhere to go no home of their own and no food to eat only rain water to drink

rains for days without break I think of mothers who give birth in squatter camps under plastic shelters at the mercy of cold angry winds

Sometimes when it rains
I think of 'illegal' job seekers in big cities dodging police vans in the rain hoping for darkness to come so they can find some wet corner to hide in

rains so hard hail joins in I think of life prisoners in all the jails of the world and wonder if they still love to see the rainbow at the end of the rain

with hail stones biting the grass I can't help thinking they look like teeth many teeth of smiling friends then I wish that everyone else had something to smile about.
